THIS IS SAINT AUGUSTINE'S COLLEGE

From the Desk of your President

Greetings to the members of this distinguished Senior Class, as well as to all students of the "Aug."

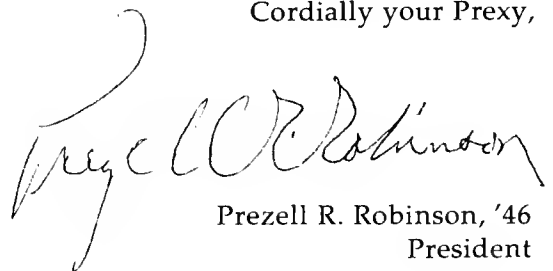

As seniors, you are graduating at a time when much is expected of you. The world in which we live today is troubled by problems such as inflation, excessive crime, threats of another World War, a lack of confidence in our political leaders, as well as sundry other concerns.

I hope the fact that you have spent four years or more at Saint Augustine's that you have had an opportunity to be exposed to ideas and ideals that will enable you to not only come to grips with some of the problems which confront us, but you will have some solutions to these problems. You may not have all of the answers, but hopefully you have been equipped with the intellect and the tools necessary to assist you in attacking them intelligently.

Whether you like it or not, Saint Augustine's has stamped an indelible imprint in one way or the other on you. I hope it has been positive and as you go forth into the world, my charge to you is to remember, "to whom much is given, much is expected."

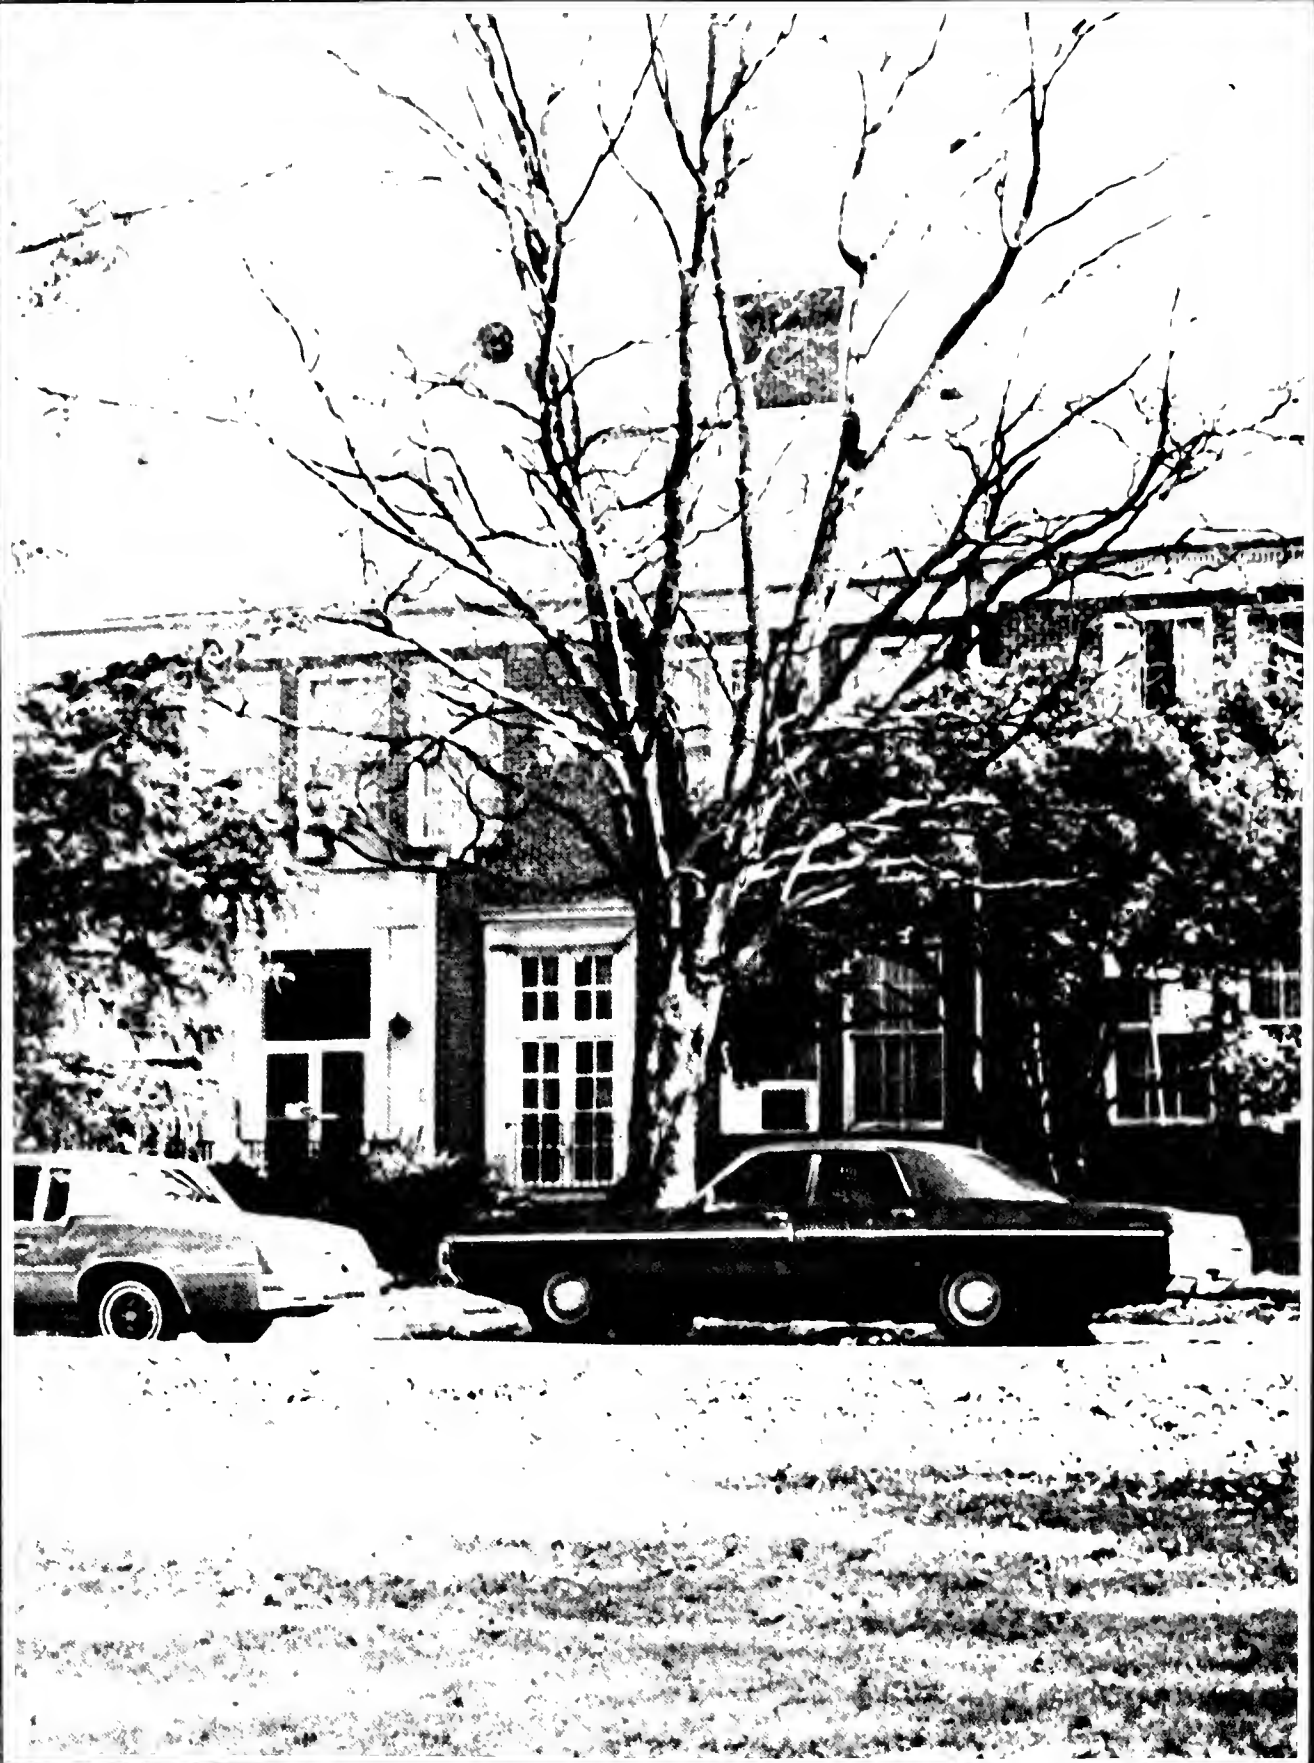

Finally, let us keep God as the central focus of our lives and carry Him and His teachings with us wherever we go and in whatever we do.

Cordially your Prexy,

Prezell R. Robinson, '46

Miss Saint Augustine's College

Joyce E. Stephenson

President Robinson, faculty, staff, fellow students, family and friends;

It is with great appreciation and gratitude that I accept this crown and the position it signifies.

This evening is one which I will always cherish and remember as one of the happiest moments of my life. My reign as Miss St. Augustine's College has, thus far, proven to be a rewarding experience. It has been an experience that would not have been possible without the support of the student body. I would like to also thank Mrs. Mable Matthews, Ms. Lugenia Rochelle, Ms. Joan Taylor, Mrs. M. C. White, Mr. Harold Jeffreys, Dr. Youngil Cho and other coronation committee members for their assistance to me. I would like to give special thanks to my parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Stephenson, Sr. and to Mr. Raymond Jarrett for their patience, understanding and love.

I am only one,
But still I am one.
I cannot do everything,
But still I can do something;
And because I cannot do everything,
I will not refuse to do the something I can do.

May God bless each and every one of you.

Alpha Phi Alpha, the first black Fraternity was founded on the campus of Cornell University, Ithica, New York, on December 4, 1906. The racial cleavage, characteristic of this period, had stimulated seven bold black students to form a group of minority people to insure mutual helpfulness. These seven students are known to members of the Fraternity as Jewels. Their courageous act was the initial step toward forming other Fraternities.

Dear Fellow Augites,

After six months of meetings, deadlines, layouts and pictures, we, the Falcon staff members, bring you the 1980 edition of the "Falcon." I thank you, the Falcon family, for putting your trust in me and making me one of the editors of the 1980 "Falcon."

A yearbook is really a history book of the things that happened during that year. In this book, we tried to capture all of the moments.

Without the help of a very fine staff and our advisors, we could not have given you this book.

Mistakes, as usual, can and will be found as you look through this book. If your name has been unintentionally misspelled, misplaced, misused or abused, we deeply apologize.

In closing, I would just like to say your yearbook is your book, so cherish it. Much happiness and success to each and every one of you.

Ron E. Dawson

Co-Editor
"80 Falcon"

Stress! Strain! Deadlines! The frustration is finally over. We have subdued our difficulties, which this long and tedious task has required. Our combined efforts and talents have gone into the makings of what we hope will long be enjoyed and appreciated.

It has been more than a pleasure to be associated with the 1980 Falcon Staff. I'd like to especially thank Hattie Harris and Valeria Shropshire their dexterity and dependability.

Also, for her guidance, time and dedication to the staff, a special thanks to our advisor Ms. Joan Taylor.

When I consider how my light is spent,
E're half my days, in this dark world and wide,
And that one Talent which is death to hide,
Lodg'd with me useless, though my Soul more bent
To serve therewith my Maker, and present
My true account, least he returning chide,
Doth God exact day-labour, light deny'd,
I fondly ask; But patience to prevent
That murmur, soon replies, God doth not need
Either man's work or his own gifts, who best
Bear his milde yoak, they serve him best, his State
Is Kingly. Thousands at his bidding speed
And post o're Land and Ocean without rest:
They also serve who only stand and waite.

1958-----1979

Let not your heart be troubled, ye believe in God believe also in me.
In my Father's House are many mansions.
If it were not so, I would have told you.

She fought until she fell upon the battle field
And then she heard the General say,
Lay down your sword and shield.

Her soul has gone to God, the earth has claimed its own
And now she's shouting around the throne
While we are left to mourn.

Some day we will meet again, our loved ones gone before; Some day we will reach that happy land, where parting is no more.

Within the narrow structure
of my life,
I can climb so high...
and feel so good.

I never feel any need to climb
down and die
but yet I know that one day
I will and I'll have to sacrifice
my place to someone else.

I can only hope I die trying to find ways to freedom instead of ways
to stay alive.

(Johnny,
 It all started when you got here and slowly your friendship began to somewhat fade.
 However, our real feelings as friends were deep inside. Although at the end we did not hang out as much,
 my friendship for you was just as great as it was in the beginning.
 Success is definitely yours. Remember me always and take care of yourself
 Good luck with college!! Love
 Audrey

Johnny ²⁰¹ alias ("Chompy") ^{Latham}

You've become a special person in my life, something that I never can forget, because the traumas, the joys we had together will never be parted for the rest of our lives
because we are a part of each other. ☺
